

On the Green

EDWARD MINER GALLAUDET MEMORIAL LIBRARY
GALLAUDET COLLEGE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

VOL. III, NO. 3
October 10, 1973

CAC SPONSORS ART SHOW

On October 23, the Cultural Affairs Committee will open an exhibit in Chapel Hall of the work of Robert Freiman. A deaf American artist, Mr. Freiman's work can be found in the permanent collections of the Boston Museum and the Connecticut Museum in New Britain.

He works in various media but prefers a mixture of watercolor, acrylic and pen and ink. The exhibit will run through November 21.

COLLEGE TO JOIN CITY CELEBRATION

Gallaudet has been asked to participate in the first District of Columbia City Celebration on October 21 and 22.

The event, sponsored by the D.C. Bicentennial Commission and Assembly, will focus on the quality of life in Washington and feature performing arts, booths and displays from a wide variety of agencies, organizations and embassies in the city, ethnic foods and arts and crafts.

The Gallaudet Dancers will be performing (time to be announced) and the College will man a booth. A model of the new MSSD facility will be displayed in the District Building during the Celebration.

The two-day event will begin at 12 noon and conclude at 7 p.m. on each day and will take place on E Street between the District Building and 15th Street, N.W.

We hope you will be able to join us in this event. Watch the TV Wheel for further details.

AMONG OURSELVES

Harry Bornstein will present a paper, "Signed English: One Example of a Manual Supplement to Speech," at the International Symposium on Learning Disabilities, III, in Miami on October 23....The New York City Chapter of Dance Masters of America have honored Peter Wisher with the Elsa Heich Kempe Award. The award is made to an individual who has made a significant contribution towards the advancement of performing arts....Welcome to: Debbie Madsen, MSSD; Amy Nichols, Kendall; David Eines, Alumni and Public Relations; and Maria Johnson, Cultural Affairs.

WORK PROCEEDING ON AUTOMATIC CUER

The National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Stroke has granted a two-year contract to Gallaudet College to develop the Automatic Cuer. The device conceived by Orin Cornett, who is heading the project, will provide visual and tactile cues from the sound of the speaker's voice and assist the hearing impaired person lipread.

Mary Elsie Heneger is serving as coordinator of training and testing. James Pickett and William Stokoe are also participating in the project. The Cued Speech Office is located in room 301 of College Hall.

CFC KICKOFF

The 1974 Combined Federal Campaign is underway. Representing 118 local, national and international charitable agencies, CFC hopes to raise $9.2 million during this year's drive. Campus co-chairmen Francis Higgins and Stanley Kelly have cited $16,257 as the goal set for Gallaudet College.

The following are keypersons: Jane Woodward, Herbert Mapes, Pearl Hawkins, Gary Schlub, Catherine Higgins, Lisa Underwood, Charles Burton, Jenny O'Toole, Rod Ferrell, Tom Lillis, Jerry Lee, Sam Wagner and Alex Nobleman.

MSSD GROUNDBREAKING

The Model Secondary School for the Deaf extends a welcome to members of the faculty, staff and student body who will be available to attend its groundbreaking ceremony on Wednesday, October 17 at 3 p.m. at the construction site.

Mrs. Pat Nixon will be the special guest of honor and bring greetings from the White House. Other special guests will include Nanette Fabray, HEW Secretary Caspar Weinberger and Senator Jennings Randolph of the Senate Subcommittee on the Handicapped.

Mayor Walter Washington will also be present and proclaim October 17 as "MSSD Day." The United States Marine Band will play for the ceremony. An invitational luncheon will precede the ceremony.

AUDIOLOGY AND SPEECH TO EXHIBIT AT ASHA

The Department of Audiology and Speech is contributing a scientific exhibit, "Audio-logical Habilitation: Assessment of Listening-Speaking in Deaf Adults," at the American Speech and Hearing Association Convention in Detroit, October 12-15.

David Tweedie will also be presenting a paper, "Praxis, Speech and Language: A Developmental Study," to the convention.

Following the convention, the exhibit will be set up in Chapel Hall from October 17 to 19. Please stop by and take a look.

MARGARET MEAD CHALLENGES AUDIENCE

Margaret Mead, one of America's foremost anthropologists, spoke Monday evening in the Auditorium in honor of the 25th anniversary of Student Body Government.

Sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee, Ms. Mead's lecture focused on the topic of communication and raised two questions with the audience -- the possibility of sign language becoming an international language and the challenge of what deaf persons want sign language to become.

Ms. Mead is in the Washington area this fall as scholar-in-residence at the National Institutes of Mental Health.

CONTINUING EDUCATION BEGINS INTERNSHIPS

An internship program, designed to provide local communities throughout the nation with practical experience in organization, promotion, financing and management of adult education programs has been added by the Center for Continuing Education.

The first interns, who will be at Gallaudet for four weeks, are: Rachel Wright, Vocational Rehabilitation, Goldsboro, N.C.; Hartmut Teuber, State Department of Education, Manchester, N.H.; William Cooksley, Portland Community College, Portland, Ore; and Shirley Glassman, Philadelphia Community College; Philadelphia, Pa.

AROUND AND ABOUT

The TV Studio had portions of two of its productions shown at Videxpo in New York. Videxpo is a national video show sponsored by Billboard Publications and is aimed at manufacturers and users of video equipment....Research and Training Opportunities Abroad, published by the Institute of International Studies, is available in the Development Office.... Mr. Henry L. Tate of Rockville, Md., has been designated chairman of the Rotary District 762 Committee for Scholarship for the Deaf -- an endowment fund which will enable students to attend Gallaudet or to pursue graduate study....PLEASE GIVE THE GRASS A CHANCE! KEEP OFF THE REGRADED AND NEWLY SEEDED AREAS!

SBG CELEBRATES ITS 25TH

Homecoming weekends are anticipated with great enthusiasm by students and alumni alike. This year's homecoming events are even more special as SBG celebrates its 25th anniversary.

A program honoring the SBG will begin on Wednesday and run through Saturday. Thursday has been claimed SBG Day -- classes are cancelled -- and 24 of the 28 former SBG presidents will be on campus participating in the special events.

Saturday's events will include the homecoming game -- the Bisons challenge Virginia Commonwealth at 1 p.m. -- and the anniversary banquet with Stanley Benewitz, SBG's first president, speaking. The homecoming dance will follow.

Hearty congratulations and best wishes for another 25 years.

IF IT IS NEWS YOU HAVE....

Stop in and see us at Chapel Hall or give a call (480 TTY or 741 voice).

Judy Bortner, editor

